Message from Hong Kong International Oncology Research Society (HKIORS) & the Scientific Committee

Dear Colleagues, Friends & Fraternity Members,

Thank you for enjoying the last three editions of Best of ASCO Hong Kong. In these challenging times, we are committed to providing the highest quality of care to our patients and keeping ourselves updated with the latest advances in cancer care.

It is our pleasure to announce that the Hong Kong International Oncology Research Society (HKIORS) and the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO) are partnering together this year to bring Best of ASCO 2025, Hong Kong on 12th July 2025 in Hong Kong. Together with HKIORS, we aim to bring you a Highly-interactive conference on practice-changing clinical data in oncology this year.

As you are aware, Best of ASCO is a very popular program run by ASCO in over twenty-five countries. This program has the latest and best scientific studies in clinical oncology (which will be presented at the ASCO Annual Conference 2025) handpicked by the scientific committee members of the Hong Kong & ASCO team and showcased to doctors.

The one-day program will be a great opportunity to attend lectures focused on different aspects of oncology, in-person panel discussions with experts, and the latest technologies displayed physically by world-class pharmaceuticals and medical companies.

We look forward to welcoming you and a wide audience of clinical oncologists, medical oncologists, hematologists, and other medical specialists as well as trainees in addition to other healthcare professionals like nurses and pharmacists, to join the sessions to review the latest research and explore new therapies and their potential impact on cancer care in Hong Kong.

We look forward to a great scientific conference with all of you.

Regards,

Hong Kong International Oncology Research Society (HKIORS)

About Best of ASCO

Best of ASCO 2025 brings the most groundbreaking and clinically relevant oncology research from the ASCO 2025 Annual Meeting to Hong Kong. Designed for oncologists, researchers, and healthcare professionals, this exclusive event distills key scientific advancements into practical insights that can be immediately applied in clinical practice.

This year's program will highlight the most significant breakthroughs in cancer treatment, covering primary disease sites, emerging therapies, and cutting-edge research that is reshaping patient care. Each selected abstract represents a pivotal advancement in oncology, ensuring that attendees gain a comprehensive understanding of the evolving treatment landscape.

Renowned oncology experts will provide in-depth discussions, offering a localized perspective on how these findings impact patient care in Hong Kong. The interactive format encourages audience participation, fostering engaging discussions and networking opportunities with peers and thought leaders.

Join us at Best of ASCO 2025 - Hong Kong, where innovation meets practice, and together, we advance the future of cancer care.
